
Other Parts of FSV UK

Centre for Social and Economic Strategies (CESES)

The Centre was founded in 2000. It is an interdisciplinary research and education unit engaged in the development of theory, methodology and practice of exploring possible future developments, and the application of analyses and forecasts in decision making.

Find more here

Department of Foreign Languages

The Department is a component part of the Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University. It was set up in 1990 with the foundation of the Faculty. Its aim is to provide language tuition that will reflect the needs of the students.

Find more here

Library (Scientific Information Centre)

Faculty of Social Sciences has three libraries which are found in the three buildings of the Faculty.

- The Central Library is found in the Hollar building together with a section on Journalism
- The Library Opletalova in the Opletalova building houses Economics collection
- The Masaryk Library of Social Sciences in the Jinonice building houses the Political Science, Sociology and Area Studies collections

Centre for Information and Computing Technology (CICT)

This centre ensures the development and the functioning of information technology in the three Faculty buildings: the Hollar building, the Opletalova building and the Jinonice building.

Find more here \(Czech webiste\) or contact the office here .